

Father Andrew White School Sock Drive

This year, Father Andrew White School will be sponsoring a white sock drive for The Mission in Lexington Park. The Mission is a faith based outreach program that helps those in need of clothes, food, shelter, and more. This drive will run from now until mid-November. Bins/boxes labeled “White Socks” can be found by each entrance to the school and students can drop any size of socks, preferably white. (We will not turn away nonwhite socks.) To make this sock drive coronavirus safe, please drop your socks in it without touching the box. If 200 pairs of socks are donated, then there will be a schoolwide tag day!
